

GOVERNING THE PHILIPPINES

LITTLE TROUBLE IS FEARED FOR AMERICAN OFFICIALS.

Native Leaders Can Be Won Over By Paltry Offices and Showy Uniforms—They Fight Simply Because They Are Too Lazy to Work—Plans For the Future.

Washington, Dec. 19.—[Special]—Plans for the government of the Philippines after the treaty of peace with Spain is ratified are being considered by officials here, but as yet there seems to be no agreement upon a policy. Some are disposed to exaggerate the strength of Aguinaldo's following. From the best information obtainable his band is not of considerable importance. Most of his soldiers are mere vagabonds, with no home ties—men who will not work unless compelled to do so and who are in their element when plundering. It makes little difference to them whether their victims are friends or foes. When not prowling around the country they are lounging on the street corners, drinking and gambling.

It would be hard to find anywhere a more worthless set of human beings. They are burly, and their labor might be turned to good account on the plantations. But they have led the lives of freebooters so long that it is doubtful if they will ever be content to follow the arts of peace. Their leaders are ambitious and unscrupulous. Like all ignorant men they delight to exercise a little brief authority. But they are all vengeful, from Aguinaldo down, and can be purchased at a price that seems cheap to Americans. Many here are in favor of buying their acquiescence in the new order of things shortly to be established, and this, it would appear, is the best and cheapest way out of the difficulty. A majority of the leaders can be purchased by some paltry office whose functions they can exercise under American supervision. Some could be made customs officers. With a stipend of a hundred dollars a year or thereabouts and a second-hand cutlass and a few yards of gold braid as emblems of authority, the Philippine rebel would be perfectly content. He does not care for riches; a few articles of tawdry finery for a uniform and the right to lord it over a few of his fellows will make him feel like a prince and assure the government of his loyalty.

The people have no idea of home rule in the sense in which it is understood here. They expect to pay tribute to some one, and would as soon pay it to the United States as to Spain. If they have a few baubles with which to amuse themselves—a few minor offices—they will regard themselves as peculiarly blessed by fortune.

The problem of governing the islands is not, therefore, as difficult as it seemed at one time. A shrewd American officer placed in command at Manila would not be long in gathering about him a retinue of followers who would sustain him in all he might undertake. He would have to avoid the appearance of coercion, perhaps, but could accomplish far more by the judicious use of official favors. Little trouble, therefore, is apprehended after the Americans come into full possession of the islands.

Miss Lottie Fleck, of Brodhead, niece of C. M. Fleck, of this city, and a pupil of Mrs. J. F. Sweeney, recently took part in a musical program at Milwaukee and the following compliment is paid her:

On Saturday evening, Nov. 19, 1898 the seventeenth recital, by the pupils of the Milwaukee-Downer college, was given. Among the performers was Miss Lottie Fleck, who rendered a piano solo, "Ave Maria," by Holst, in so pleasing a manner as to win high praise. FUNERALS HELD YESTERDAY

Services Over the Remains of the Late Francis Pennycook.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Francis Pennycook, who died suddenly of heart disease Friday afternoon, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home in the town of Janesville.

Rev. E. H. Pence officiated, the Fulton choir furnished the music, and the interment took place in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. The pall bearers were: J. L. Bear, James Caldwell, John Higgins, Edward Hubbell, Michael Bowen, and Lewis Trambly.

Deceased was member of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., of this city, also a member of the Rock County Caledonian society, and many of the members of these societies attended the funeral.

The floral offerings were beautiful, and the house was filled with sorrowing friends.

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. William Kinney was laid to rest yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. W. Woodside, of the First Methodist church, conducted services from the home, corner of Western avenue and Emmett street.

SHOPPERS WERE NUMEROUS

The Local Merchants Enjoyed Good Business on Saturday.

Janesville merchants found Saturday a busy day from early until late. Christmas shoppers were everywhere, and all seemed well supplied with cash. The fine roads and the beautiful day were an inducement for people to come out, and the streets and stores were filled with country people and town people alike. The fine assortment of goods on the shelves of the merchants of this city prove the best argument for house buying.

The crowd that pushed and jostled on the streets and in the stores has not been equalled in this city in many days.

POWER HOUSE ACCIDENT

Resulted in a Shut Down Yesterday of the Street Cars.

The street car line was shut down four hours yesterday on account of a break in the machinery at the power house. The shut down was near the evening hour, when many people in the outlying sections of the city depended on the cars to get them to the Murphy temperance meeting, and many waited for the cars that never came.

The break in the machinery was repaired at a nominal cost, and towards 7:30 o'clock the cars were again running.

LIFE IS A BURDEN TO GOVERNOR LIND

MINNESOTA'S NEW EXECUTIVE IN HARD LUCK.

Driven From the State By the Importunities of Office Seekers—He Is Compelled to Seek Refuge In Chicago—Escapes From St. Paul By Stealth.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 19.—[Special]—A hungrier set of office seekers has never laid siege to the capitol than the throng that is now assembled here. Never before in its history has Minnesota elected a democrat as governor, although she entered the union under democratic auspices.

The office seekers are so numerous and persistent that they have driven Governor Lind from the state. He came to the city the other day and attempted to get his bearings. But no sooner had he deposited his grip at the hotel than the office seekers began their importunities. He could not eat his dinner in peace. When he went to the barber shop to get a shave there were scores of office-seekers hovering about while the barber lathered his face. He entered the bath-room to remove the stains of travel, and a score of hungry patriots hovered about the door, eager to trap him as soon as he emerged. He ordered a carriage to drive around the city, and his rig was pursued up and down the avenues by every conceivable turnout that could be hired or borrowed in the city. He sought the seclusion of his sleeping apartment, but far into the night the bell-boys were trotting up and down the stairs and rapping at his door, bearing notes and cards from patriots who "wanted to see the governor just for a minute on a matter of great importance." It did no good to return the information that he was abed. The business could be conducted just as well in bed as in the luxuriously appointed gubernatorial office. It is reported that in a desperate endeavor to elude his persecutors the governor eloped out on an old suit of clothes, blacked his face, and endeavored to sneak out of the hotel by the servants' doorway, but his disguise was penetrated and he had a brisk race for his life around the lower part of the city.

Finally, despairing of rest, and fearful, almost, of his own shadow, Mr. Lind managed to sneak through the alleys to the depot, where he boarded a train for Chicago. The office-seekers heard of his intention and made a rush for the train, but Mr. Lind had anticipated the movement, and bribing the express messenger secreted himself among the packages in the car until the train started. As it swept around the river bend headed for Chicago, he emerged from his place of hiding and again felt himself a free man.

It is said that Mr. Lind will remain in Chicago up to the evening before his inauguration; and that when he returns he will leave the train at a nearby station and enter the city by stealth under cover of darkness.

The majority of the office seekers who have been hounding the life out of him are his fellow countrymen—Scandinavians.

They are twin brothers, about fifteen years of age, and are now in the industrial school for boys at Waukesha. HALL BROUGHT HERE FOR SAFE KEEPING DOESN'T SECURE NECESSARY AMOUNT OF BAIL.

Charged With Assault With Intent to Do Great Bodily Harm—Wounded Man Still In Dangerous Condition—Prisoner Has Hearing On Next Saturday—His Wounds Slight.

Delet Hall, who is charged with stabbing his brother during a quarrel, is now behind the bars of the Rock county jail. He was brought to this city Saturday evening from Edgerton, and is charged with assault with intent to commit great bodily harm. In default of bail he is now in jail to await a hearing which will be given him on Saturday, Dec. 24.

The prisoner is a middle aged man who does not look like a quarrelsome fellow. At the jail today he would say but little in reference to his attack on his brother with a knife.

On his head he has slight knife wounds that were inflicted during the fight.

As to what brought on the fight the prisoner does not care to state, preferring to have such evidence come out at the hearing which will probably be held in Edgerton.

District Attorney Jackson has visited Edgerton for the purpose of gathering evidence against the prisoner, and it is said that he found but little trouble in securing all that was necessary.

George Hall, who is alleged to have been stabbed by his brother Delet, is still in a dangerous condition as the result of a frightful gash across his abdomen which almost disemboweled him. Physicians have constantly watched over him, and unless blood poisoning or some other unforeseen difficulty sets in he may recover.

Neighbors and friends who have known the Hall brothers for many years say that they have not borne a bad reputation.

FORTUNE IN FOLDING BED

Former Janesville Girl Makes a Valuable Invention.

Mrs. Stenhouse, now of Chicago, formerly Miss Katherine Roberts, of this city, has recently invented a convertible bed couch that promises to make her considerable wealth.

It is made of iron, and the leading furniture firms throughout the country are handling it.

The double iron bed folds in half, the right half overlapping the left half, forming the back and ends of the couch. The double springs and mattress form the upholstered back and seat. A desirable and new feature in this bed is that it is convertible into a couch with the bed clothes intact. When folded a loose fancy cover is put on, thus completing the most luxurious couch ever made. The brass knobs and rails of the bed are the posts and arms of the couch. The bed is constructed on hygienic principles, the bottom being open and free of dust. The seat of the couch is 30 inches wide and 6 feet 2 inches long. The bed is 4 feet 4 inches wide.

Mrs. Stenhouse is a sister of Mrs. Margaret Allen and John Roberts, of this city.

WANTS AN EXTRA SESSION HELD

FINANCIAL INTERESTS AT BOTTOM OF MOVEMENT.

Seem Determined to Call Congress Together Against the President's Desire—Significance of His Recent Statements Made At Savannah—Moneyed Men Clandorous.

Washington, Dec. 19.—[Special]—A remark by the president at Savannah has caused comment in legislative circles. He said there could be no financial or revenue changes in this country for the next four years. This would seem to indicate that the president is not inclined to pay much attention to the demands of leading financial men for an extra session in March to consider the financial question. The people behind the scheme, however, don't appear to be discouraged. Men connected directly or indirectly with the monetary commission are reported to be resorting to every method possible to force an extra session. A paper calling for an extra session is still being circulated in congress.

RICH STRIKES IN WASHINGTON

Discovery of a Gold Belt Seven Miles Long Three Miles Wide.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 19.—There is great excitement here over repeated rich strikes in Republic camp on the Colville reservation. It is now demonstrated that the gold belt is at least seven miles long and three miles wide and in that area rich ore outcrops are and in that area rich ore outcrops are being discovered almost daily.

The sensation this week is an extraordinary rich strike in a certain mine. The claim was bought for a few hundred dollars last week by a syndicate of Spokane men. A company was incorporated and a block of treasury stock was sold at 2½ cents. Men were set to work on the claim making an open cut and they struck high grade gold ore at the grass roots.

One man reports that he sampled an eighteen-inch pay chute on the claim and the assay return was $665 in gold. Large blocks of the stock are now changing hands at 12 cents.

FOR EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

The Battle Is to Be Renewed by the Granite Cutters.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 19.—The year 1899 is destined to witness the greatest renewal of the eight-hour struggle since 1886, when the fight for a shorter work day culminated in the Haymarket riot in Chicago. On May 1 next the granite cutters, a compact and powerful organization, will demand a reduction of their work day to the standard adopted by the American federation as the goal of present endeavor, and they will have the united support of the labor organizations of the country.

James Duncan, the granite cutters' delegate to the American Federation of Labor convention, a few days ago announced the desire of his union to take the lead. The matter was referred to the committee on resolutions. It is stated that the committee will report favorably, and there is little doubt the convention will give its hearty approval.

The proposition to raise a strike fund by increasing the per capita tax has not yet come before the convention, but the moral support of the federation in the demands of the granite cutters is unquestioned. The granite cutters have forty-six votes in the convention, which indicates an effective strength of about 4,600 members.

The British cruiser Iphigeneia arrived here Saturday. The Chinese interpreted her arrival as meaning that Great Britain will oppose the enforcement of the French claims.

THE JOB ON BOB.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.—Robert M. La Follette's statement to the effect that in endeavoring to secure the republican nomination for governor he expended $8,484.64 places him before the public in a light that is inconsistent with his pretensions in his agricultural fair addresses previous to the campaign. Then he could find no terms too scathing for political candidates using money to secure nomination or election. Now it appears, however, from sworn statements on file that he spent more in his futile endeavor than was expended by any of the other candidates for office republican or democrat, on the state ticket. There is no charge that he did anything corrupt. The charge against him is that he was ready to believe evil of other men in his own party, who deserve his respect, and who, while he was declaiming against the use of money to influence elections, have used less money in that way than he did. People inclined to joke will joke at Bob for this and instead of calling him "the great apostle of reform," will dub him "the great apostate of reform." It's high time for Bob to confess that the joke is on him and to come back into the party and be good.

Atlanta people cheered President McKinley's reference to placing Confederate cemeteries under federal care. Why not do so? The old sectional feeling is gone. No one questions the fact that the Confederates were as brave a lot of soldiers as ever faced an enemy. They fought for what they thought to be right, but the principle for which they died can never be resurrected. Then why should we not mourn with the brothers of the south over their brave sons? We should. The sorrows of the south are the sorrows of the north, these days, for the flag of the United States is supported by every citizen in this broad land.

There seems to be considerable reluctance on the part of the democratic party to adopt William J. Bryan as its presidential candidate in 1900. Why doesn't the party turn Mr. Bryan over to Mr. Hear, of Massachusetts? Both of these gentlemen are opposed to territorial expansion. One might form the party and the other be the presidential candidate, and there would be no danger of dissension.

Nearly two hundred Chicago women kissed Lieut. Hobson the other day. Unless the hysterical women give Hobson a rest pretty soon, he will doubtless regret that he ever saw the Merrimac.

Col. Bryan has recovered from his recent attack of military lockjaw, but has contracted a very severe attack of "the jobbers." Col. Bryan is one of the most unfortunate of men.

Tally one. The Hyer case was reversed and remanded for a new trial.

More About Flour

The rapidity with which we are pushing out the greatest makes of flour these days is something remarkable. Washburn, Crosby & Co's, famous Gold Medal and Jennison Bros'. Very Best are finding more friends every day than most any other cereal product in Janesville. We are still selling them at $1 per sack and have just placed an order for immediate shipment for another car of Gold Medal. Sanborn.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL GOSSIP

Those mantle clocks we are selling at $5 are pleasing plenty of buyers. They are the famous Seth Thomas make. F. C. Cook & Co.

A day like today makes one realize the value of an umbrella. A special sale of Christmas umbrellas at Hall, Snyles & Field's, "the reliable jewelers" tomorrow is worth remembering.

On Wednesday, the 21st at 1 p. m. there will be a sale at Court Street church, when all articles, including dressed dolls, not sold at the annual sale will be sold at a discount. Supper from 5 to 7.

So many people are inquiring about Way's mallets. They would make a splendid holiday gift and are not expensive either $1, $1.25 and $1.50. They close up the open space about the neck not covered by the overcoat and are always warm and tight about the neck. They certainly prevent colds. Ziegler.

SQUARE brand coffee is making many friends these days. It is a Mocha and Java blend and sells at 30 cents per pound put in air tight cans. We guarantee it to be equal to any 38 cent coffee on the market. Sanborn.

THE THEME IS EXPANSION.

Senator Platt Announces His Views on the Subject.

WORK FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Our New Form: #1 Movement May Occupy More or Less Attention of the Senate Until Wednesday, When the Recess Begins—House Forecast.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The week in the senate was opened today with a speech by Senator Platt of Connecticut on the question of expansion. Mr. Platt is to reply to the speech of Senator Vest, made last Monday, and as he has given very careful attention to the extension of our territorial area, no little interest is manifested among senators in his presentation of the matter, and it is not improbable, unless the Nicaragua bill prevents, that the speech will precipitate a more or less general debate upon this question. Whether it does or not, a number of speeches on the same subject will be made after the Christmas holidays preparatory to the consideration of the peace treaty.

It is hoped that the treaty will be taken up for discussion early in January. Already there is talk of the probability of disposing of the treaty during the present session, and the impression favorable to this result is growing. The friends of the treaty, who are giving attention to the closest details of opposition as they develop themselves, have taken the pains to have enumerated the names of the signers to the memorials against annexation which have reached the states, as follows: Massachusetts, 1,435; West Virginia, 191; Indiana, 74; Ohio, 50; Florida, 47; New York 45; Virginia, 39; Vermont, 20; Maryland, 16; Pennsylvania and Illinois, each 15; Rhode Island, 12; New Hampshire, 6; California and Missouri, 3 each; Wisconsin and Tennessee, 2 each, and Maine, Colorado, Iowa and Nevada, 1 each.

The holiday recess, by the terms of the resolution reported by the ways and means committee, is to begin Thursday and extend until Wednesday, Jan. 4. It is likely, however, that the resolution will be amended so as to make the recess begin Wednesday instead of Thursday. The appropriation bills are farther advanced now than they have been for many years at the short session. The agricultural bill was reported Saturday and will be taken up on Tuesday. Four of the regular money budgets out of thirteen will have passed the lower house before the holiday recess, an unprecedented thing in legislative annals. The military academy bill will be reported before the recess. Time will be allotted for the naval personnel bill soon after the house reconvenes after the holiday recess.

British Chain Is Complete. Zanzibar, Dec. 19.—News has come from Maj. McDonald, who is at the head of an expedition from the south, that shows the last link in the British chain "from the Cape to Cairo" is complete. The major has established stations all the way northward from Uganda to Lake Rudolph. He is now about to descend the River Sobat, which empties into the Nile; and make his way toward Fashoda. The expedition has effected a big stroke in the way of establishing British claims to an enormous territory.

Quiet Day at Savannah. Savannah, Ga., Dec. 19.—A quiet Sunday was spent by President McKinley and his party, the only notable feature of which was the address made by the president in the afternoon at the Georgia Industrial college, a state institution for the education of negroes. Mayor Meldrim, who is a trustee of the college, had invited the president to visit it, and the invitation was accepted, although it had been declined at first to allow Savannah's distinguished guest a chance to rest.

McKinley's Hint to Vatican. Washington, Dec. 19.—President McKinley is extremely anxious to see Archbishop Ireland appointed papal delegate to the Philippines. He believes the archbishop would be of great service as an intelligent mediator between the military authorities and the Philippine clergy. The administration's desires in this respect will be intimated to the Roman pontiff unofficially.

Cruiser Sent to Nicaragua. San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 19.—The United States Cruiser Philadelphia, which left here about four weeks ago for a trip along the Central American coast, had for her destination Corinto, Nicaragua. She arrived there a few days ago. It is now learned that her mission is to prevent any change in the Nicaragua canal situation.

Sagasta May Resign Today. Madrid, Dec. 19.—The papers here report that the cabinet, at its meeting Saturday, decided not to appear before the cortes. It is believed that Senor Sagasta will submit the ministry's resignation to the queen regent today.

New Wardships to be Voted. Washington, Dec. 19.—Assurances have been given President McKinley and Secretary Long by members of the naval committees of congress that the shipbuilding program which they recommend will be adopted.

Dreyfus Going to Paris. Paris, Dec. 19.—The Solr reports that Dreyfus will leave Cayenne on Jan. 3 and arrive in Paris at the end of the month.

EXPORTS REACH $1,250,000,000

Remarkable Showing for the Year 1898.—Imports Much Less.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Officials of the treasury department predict that the present calendar year will close with a record of the largest balance of trade ever reached in favor of the United States. The records so far completed show that the exports during the year will reach a value of $1,250,000,000, while the imports are not likely to exceed $640,000,000. Only twice in our history have the exports during a calendar year passed the billion-dollar line, while the imports will be less than that of any year since 1885, and fully $100,000,000 less than that of the year 1897. Exports during the month of November were valued at $128,783,512, the largest in any month in the history of our commerce. Our imports during the month were valued at $52,109,590, slightly less than those of November, 1897, and less, with three exceptions, than those of any November since 1885.

TRAIN WRECK IN INDIANA.

Fast Express Crashes Into a Water Tank.

ONE KILLED, ELEVEN HURT.

Passenger Coaches on the Indiana, Decatur & Western Road Pile Up in Run in a Ditch at Guion, Ind.—Miraculous Escape of the Travelers.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 19.—Passenger train No. 4, night express, east bound, on the Indiana, Decatur and Western railroad, was wrecked at Guion, forty-five miles west of this city, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The dead:

T. M. WELLS of Arcola, Ill., who was superintendent of the schools of Tuscola, Ill.

The injured:
Julius Wanderlich, Columbus, O.
M. Gavin, Indianapolis, Ind.
M. J. Moore, Indianapolis, Ind.
Warner Saylor, Indianapolis, Ind.
David Painter, Decatur, Ill.
A. J. Diddle, Indianapolis.
N. S. Sherman, Indianapolis.
William Corder, Indianapolis.
Andrew Kafer, Indianapolis.
Alexander Mitchell, Indianapolis.

It is not believed that any of the injured will die as the result of their injuries. Julius Wanderlich, who was one of the most seriously injured, was sent to his home in Columbus. He was hurt internally.

The railroad men who were in the wreck say they are unable to explain how it is that all the passengers, about thirty, were not killed. The train carries an express car, a combination baggage, a smoker, a ladies' coach, a sleeper from St. Louis, which it picks up at Metcalf, Ill., and a sleeper from Springfield, Ill., for Cincinnati. Saturday night it was carrying, in addition to the regular make-up, the private car of W. I. Woodford of New York, president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, and the private car of the officials of the Indiana, Decatur and Western, containing J. S. Lazarus, traffic manager, and George W. Graves, superintendent. President Woodford was spending the night with the Indiana, Decatur and Western officials, and along with them escaped uninjured.

The exact cause of the wreck has not been ascertained by the railroad officials. The condition of the track behind the wreck leads them to believe an axle or a wheel on the combination car broke. The train ran a quarter of a mile after the car began careening, and passed two trestles, one forty feet high and one sixty feet high. At the approach of a deep cut the baggage car left the track and was dashed into a water tank containing 60,000 gallons of water. The cars following were piled up on the combination car, one after another. Fire started and all would probably have been burned had not the water released flooded the whole, nearly drowning the passengers. The combination car was completely demolished, and T. M. Wells, who is believed to have been the only occupant of it, was instantly killed. When found he was pinned down by a heavy trunk.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
Though only 10 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

We guarantee every article of liquor we sell as being exactly as represented.

LADIES

Eleven months in the year our advertisements are for gentlemen or parents. This week - or each day until the beginning of the holidays, rather - our advertisements will be directed to every lady in Janesville who contemplates giving a present to a gentleman on Christmas. There is no risk of disappointing the receiver, if the present is purchased from a house that is recognized as headquarters for GENTLEMEN'S APPAREL and is patronized by the class of men for whom the present is intended. The elaborate preparation we have made for our holiday trade enables us to start this week with absolutely the most satisfactory assortment - especially satisfactory in prices - of men's fashionable apparel ever shown in Janesville.
